Tracing Malevich

Exhibition-Room 1st floor

Eduard Steinberg, Composition, 1991, © E. Steinberg

In recent years several exhibitions in Europe (Amsterdam, Bonn, London, Basel) addressed Malevich's work. In our exhibition we are showing the reception of Malevich's ideas and artistic language by artists of following generations worldwide: Works of the Foundation Arina Kowner that refer to Malevich are on display. Russian artists like Eduard Steinberg, Vladimir Nemukhin and Michail Chernishev picked up his idea of Suprematism and elements of his artistic work - Square, Circle and Cross. Vladimir Nemukhin refers to the theme of playing cards of the artistic group Jack of Diamonds and Igor Makarevich humorously deals with Malevich's Sportsmen and the Black Square. Some of the international artists represented in the Foundation were also inspired by the famous avant-gardist, like the Polish artist Stanisław Fijałkowski, the Americans Sol LeWitt, Robert Mangold and Robert Ryman and the Italian artist Jannis Kounellis.
